

DECEMBER 2019

FROM THE DESK OF THE NATIONAL PRESIDENT

Dear God's partner in the Marketplace,

We welcome the end of 2019 again in this month of December.

Whatever we have passed or faced during 2019, the most important thing is the favour of God. At ICCC, we are familiar with the term God Yes in each of our business industries. "Is there a God Yes in our business or career"?

We cannot set our feet in two different places and keep moving forward, it is impossible to stand on two boats in different directions, we can only stand on what is right or "God Yes" in each of our business trips or careers as believers, so that can move forward with the aim of expanding HIS kingdom and in recognition of HIM.

The more we grow in faithfulness to do what is God's favor or "God yes", the more our conscience is trained in what is right according to the principles HE wants. And vice versa, if we continue to neglect and or choose to submit to what is not pleasing to Him, our conscience will grow insensitive to the favour of God and will be increasingly blunt.

If our conscience is bright, how bright our lives are for our family, others, community and nation and if our conscience is dark, how dark the darkness of our lives.

A wonderful friend of God, "Victory without God will hurt in the end, but victory in the favour of God will always calm and liberate"

As we approach the end of the year, we encourage all colleagues to start preparing for 2020, both as individuals, in families, communities and in the sphere of state in God's grace and for the expansion of His Kingdom.

On this occasion, we accompanied the prayers for the Indonesian ICCC delegation who was going to Israel for the Leaders Gathering and Business Match Making on 01-06 December 2019.

Finally, God's partner in the marketplace, we all at the National Board and members of ICCC-Indonesia, would like to express with our love:

Merry Christmas 25-December, 2019

Beloved God's partner in an extraordinary marketplace, again representing the entire National Board, we thank you for all your prayers, donations and participation for the ICCC-Indonesia (International Christian Chambers of Commerce) in 2019 and to expect will continue with your support for the year 2020.

See you in the next month edition, and the Lord Jesus bless you and your family.

WISDOM & TESTIMONY

The business of multiplication

The man who has helped Britain's courts go paperless began his business five years ago on a corner of his Sussex dining table. After years of prayer and financial difficulty, Paul Sachs's brainchild is transforming the nation's legal system. Roger Greene tells the miraculous story of multiplication in the lives of Paul and Bev Sachs

It all began in a conversation in 2008 between Paul Sachs and his brother on the Victoria line train between Billingshurst and Horsham.

Paul, an Information Technology consultant, asked his lawyer brother what the legal industry needed from an IT system. The answer was a system with 12 capabilities, which inspired Paul to develop a software solution called Caselines. This is an electronic 'bundle' of trial evidence for lawyers and judges to present in court cases.

To market it, Paul and Bev launched the company Netmaster Solutions, working from a corner of their dining room table in West Chiltington, West Sussex.

In 2012 they thought converting two paper evidence bundles a month into electronic bundles, for use in the courtroom, was a good month. Four years later the conversion rate was two bundles per minute which is speeding up the whole court system in England and Wales.

How did that happen?

The answer is a collaborative partnership between Paul's gift for IT systems development and Bev's gift for intercessory prayer and prophecy.

While Paul was busily developing the IT solution on the dining room table, Bev had covered one of the dining room walls with Scripture and God's promises about business, constantly declaring them over the emerging company.

They continued to tithe despite their debt

They experienced massive financial pressure during the development phase, but surrendered the business to the Lord and handed their financial situation over to him. For example, they continued to tithe despite their debt, and when Bev had a dream that there was something wrong with part of the IT system architecture, Paul discovered that he was using a copied, unlicensed piece of inexpensive software.

So despite the mounting debts he bought a licence, putting God's standards above their financial plight, gratefully declaring and believing the Scripture that had been highlighted to them from Romans 8:31:

"If God is for us who can be against us?"

Then in 2013 Paul, along with 30 other IT companies, was called to a brainstorm meeting with the Ministry of Justice (MoJ).

The MoJ wanted to tap the industry's brains to find a way of making the courts system paperless. As soon as Paul heard that they wanted to get rid of the overwhelming volumes of paper that plagued the system, he realised he already had the solution!

Next the MoJ began a major engagement process, inviting over 40 companies to suggest plans to develop and deliver the solution. In the final procurement phase it came down to a shortlist of two: Netmaster Solutions, working out of a dining room in West Chilton, and an international IT systems provider with 68,000 staff globally.

When Bev was praying about the selection interview she saw angels enter the room when Paul went in, and then saw them leave when the competitors went in. Paul went into the interview knowing he had heavenly company.

Anyone who has experienced a Government procurement process will recognise that the ensuing wait of several months to hear the result seemed interminable.

So Paul, a man who confesses to really enjoying his food, committed to fasting until they got the contract – but his fast lasted just four hours!

The contract was awarded to Netmaster Solutions in March 2015 and a year later went live. As a result, the Criminal Courts of England and Wales are now paperless, saving 2,000 trees a month. The system has 18,000 users with secure electronic access to criminal evidence for judges, prosecution and defense lawyers, and administrative staff. Every month it sends 2.3 million pages of electronic evidence securely for 9,000 court cases.

To Paul and Bev it proved that God loves justice as well as promoting believers in business. The impact on the efficiency of the Criminal Justice System in England and Wales has been massive, Paul says, citing these statistics:

- The number of hearings required to resolve a guilty plea in the Crown Courts has been reduced by 50%;
- Guilty pleas are being submitted much earlier because all the evidence is available to all key parties at the click of a mouse – no more lost or missing bits of paper evidence.
- There has been a significant upward trend in early guilty pleas, giving swifter results for victims, witnesses and defendants.
- Paul and Bev sought the Holy Spirit's guidance for their practical steps

Paul and Bev committed their business completely to God. They sought the guidance of the Holy Spirit for their practical steps and held faithfully to the prophetic words the Lord had given them. They held their accountability to God above their material circumstances even in times of extreme financial pressure.

And that's how God multiplied their business from two bundles a month to two bundles a minute!

Now they operate out of offices in Victoria and as if to underline God's involvement in the whole process, they discovered their office suite was already named Buckingham Palace, which reminded them of Mordecai's challenge to his niece, Queen Esther, in the Bible (Esther 4:14): "And who knows but that you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?"

Paul Sachs is part of the Ignite fellowship of Christians in business and the workplace which meets to pray and encourage each other in everyday work and business. Led by Roger Greene, it holds monthly breakfast and prayer meetings in Horsham. If you're interested in joining them, email roger@tricordant.com

VISI DAN TUJUAN ICCC

International Christian Chamber of Commerce (ICCC) lahir dari kepatuhan terhadap visi yang diberikan selama kurun waktu enam tahun kepada seorang usahawan Swedia J. Gunnar Olson, yang diteguhkan dengan nubuatan dan terbukanya pintu kesempatan disekitarnya yang sebelumnya tertutup.

ICCC merupakan panggilan yang serius dan menantang bagi pengusaha Kristen untuk mengenali jaman yang sedang kita masuki dan dengan terang dari pengenalan itu memasuki dimensi iman yang baru yang disediakan bagi mereka yang ...” takut akan TUHAN ... berbicara satu sama lain ... dan menghormati namaNya.” (Maleakhi 3: 16)

Visi ini memanggil para pengusaha dan kaum profesi di seluruh dunia yang terbebani untuk saling berhubungan, bertukar pendapat, memperdagangkan barang dan menyediakan jasa, saling mendukung dan menguatkan secara rohani dan materi.

Berdasarkan eksistensi dari visi itu sendiri memproklamirkan otoritas Kristus yang mutlak diseluruh dunia.

Urajan tersedia bagi mereka yang dengan mata melihat dan telinga mendengar panggilan jaman.

Sebagaimana halnya Raja Daud yang menerima urapan untuk menjadi raja, jauh sebelum dia menjadi Raja, yang keadaan pada saat urapan diberikan sama sekali tidak mungkin bagi Daud untuk menjadi Raja, demikianlah ICCC memanggil para pengusaha Kristen sebelum peristiwanya terjadi untuk mengalami kebebasan masuk ke dalam dimensi baru, dimana sasaran, strategi dan perencanaan bersama-sama diwujudkan sesuai dengan iman di dalam Kristus.

ICCC mencanangkan panggilan itu sejalan dengan rencana TUHAN bagi jaman ini sebagai kunci memperoleh berkat dan pertumbuhan dan agar dapat bangkit berkemenangan diatas gelombang ombak yang mengancam.

Panggilan ICCC: “Mereka akan menjadi milik kesayanganKu sendiri, firman TUHAN semesta Alam pada hari yang Kusiapkan. Aku akan mengasihi mereka sama seperti seseorang menyayangi anaknya yang melayani dia. Maka kamu akan melihat kembali perbedaan antara orang benar dan orang fasik, antara orang yang beribadah kepada TUHAN dan orang yang tidak beribadah kepada-Nya.” (Maleakhi 3: 17-18)

Jangan seperti pedagang merpati di Bait Allah

- Mereka tidak mengerti soal waktu.
- Waktu itu mereka tidak menerima Raja, pemilik bait Allah, yang datang kepada miliknya sendiri.
- Mereka menjajiskan bait Allah.

Bagi mereka ini adalah "business as usual"!

Lalu Yesus masuk ke Bait Allah dan mengusir semua orang yang berjual beli di halaman Bait Allah. Ia membalikkan meja-meja dan bangku-bangku pedagang merpati dan berkata kepada mereka: "Ada tertulis RumahKu akan disebut rumah doa. Tetapi kami menjadikannya sarang penyamun. (Mat 21:12-16)."

Akankah hal ini terjadi pada kita?

The Word Became Flesh

Scripture Reading — John 1:1-14

The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. — John 1:14

Since the beginning of this month, we have observed many of the people who lived in the family line of Jesus. Some were more successful than others in trying to live God's way. They wrestled with joy and pain, hatred and love just as we do. Each person forms a part of the story of God's people.

Today we celebrate Christmas. We celebrate that God became a fellow traveler with us in a new way. Just as Mary placed the infant Jesus in a manger, God placed himself into our difficult, messy, and often tiring journey in this world. John says it this way: "The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us" (John 1:14).

At Christmas, the God of love gave his only Son (John 3:16) to redeem us and to be with us at all times and in all places. He wants to join us on our way, listen to our joys and sorrows, prevent us from walking in meaningless circles, and direct us to his home of peace and joy.

Dear brothers and sisters, this is the great mystery of Christmas: Almighty God became a helpless infant. Because of the Word—Jesus in the flesh—we are not alone on our journey. We can always trust that he is walking with us. No wonder we sing today, "Joy to the world! The Lord is come"!

Prayer

We glorify you, Father, for the gift of your one and only Son, Jesus. In love, you have come to walk with us through life and death to your house of peace and joy. Thank you, Lord! Amen.
